PROSPECTUS FOR 1886.
The first of the year is the usual time to put in operation such changes as would be of benefit to the trade.

Believing our customers would rather pay cash for their goods, and thus get lower prices, we have concluded that to do this to their interest, as well as ours, to adopt the CASH-ON-PRICE SYSTEM, which is really the only just and satisfactory way of doing business, and at the same time, to put in operation such changes as would be of benefit to the trade.

THE BIG WALKING RACE.

And the Little Running Race at the Chapline Street Rink.

The interest felt in the six days' walking match at the Chapline street rink is evidently on the increase, though much of this is doubtless due to the series of five-mile races for amateurs.

The attendance last night was larger than it has been before. Herty and Hegelman were apparently in better condition now than they were when they started. The former made the first 200 miles last night at 8:50, and Hegelman made the same distance at 9:15.

When the race was over, Fitzgerald gave an exhibition spurt, and Herty and Hegelman resumed their tramp.

When the men left the track at midnight, Herty had made 208 miles and Hegelman 206.

A Consultation Sage.

The managers of the Chapline street rink will give a "consultation" Saturday night at 8:30, three miles, open only to amateurs of Bellaire, Bridgeport, Martin's Ferry and Wheeling who have never started in a race; purse, $3 to the first and $2 to the second. Entries received till the hour of the race.

A THREE-DAY WALKING MATCH.

The managers of the Capitol rink are making arrangements for a three-day pedestrian contest to be given at their rink, commencing on Thursday, February 4. The contestants will walk twelve hours each day, commencing at noon, and the race will be go-as-you-please, open to amateurs only, and without other restriction.

Already several entries have been received, among them Lester Brandt, of Martin's Ferry; J. C. Duncan, of Bellaire; Charles A. Johnson, of Bridgeport; and Pat Connor, of the South Side. Judge Jacob Reed, of North Wheeling, and William Gallagher, of Bellaire. Entries will be received until Monday evening, February 1, either at the Capitol rink or at the residence of Judge Reed.

Falkenstein Wins Again.

Chris Falkenstein, of McKeesport, and Jesse Burkett, of Wheeling, started a two-mile straightaway race at the Capitol rink yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock. The race, which was won easily by the McKeesport boy. The contestants were started from opposite sides of the rink, but in five or six laps from the start Chris Burkett, and maintained his lead without effort.

Felony Cases.

Albert Willis, the young colored man arrested several days ago for stealing a horse from the Capitol rink, was brought before Judge Reed yesterday and was remanded to jail in default of bail in the sum of $50 for his appearance at court. A warrant for Willis was recently issued by Judge Reed on the charge of stealing a horse from the Capitol rink, and the case was remanded to Judge Reed for his appearance at court.

Another Judgment in Favor of the State.

On Saturday last the first of a series of trials brought by the State against ex-sheriffs of this county to recover money lost by their bonds was decided in the Circuit Court, Judge Reed presiding. The case was against Ex-Sheriff Donohue, of Doddridge county, for $9,948.75. Under the second count, for $9,948.75, the State claimed against Ex-Sheriff Donohue, of Doddridge county, for $9,948.75. JAPAN IN MINIATURE.

BRILLIANT AND BEWILDERING

Scenes at the Public Building Last Evening.

The old Hall of the House Transformed into a Palace of Beauty, with the Waving Fabrics of the Orient.

It was a foregone conclusion that the Japanese Tea or Fair, which was opened last evening in the large hall in the Public Building, formerly used by the House of Delegates, would be a success. It could not have been otherwise, when one takes into consideration the indefatigable manner in which the ladies of St. Matthews P. E. church, for the benefit of which the affair was given, have worked during the past six weeks arranging for it; they have worked almost incessantly, surmounting all difficulties that presented themselves and bringing a most gratifying result out of what was at the outset all confusion and chaos.

While everyone expected the Tea to be a success, few were prepared for anything like the delightful success that it proved. Nothing in the line of an entertainment ever gotten up by home talent, either a social, charity or church nature, excepting the grand Bazaar of Nations given in the same hall three seasons ago, could approach in any respect except attendance, this Japanese Tea. The scene presented in every part of the hall was one of the most gorgeous; it was brilliant with vivid oriental coloring shown in the strange and curious decorations that were used on all sides with a lavish hand.

THE DECORATIONS.

To give a minute description of these decorations would require columns of space, an untold vocabulary and a much more extensive knowledge of things Japanese than the average American possesses. It was all done under the supervision of Mr. Frank Watson, from Hagiwara, of Pittsburgh, and the praise the work received from all present last night was not a proper recognition of his artistic merit.

Huge umbrellas, monster ball umbrellas, fans, banners, scrolls, mats, umbrellas and lanterns of smaller size and infinite variety of shape, storks and numerous other articles from the Flowery Kingdom were arranged in beautiful groups, and the result was a most attractive and beautiful scene.

Viewed from the gallery the scene was even more novel than from the floor, and at times the upper circle was full of people watching the pleasing scene below.

THE FAIRKINDS.

It was half-past seven o'clock when the Opera House orchestra started a lively overture and the doors were swung open. The rush of visitors commenced at once and continued for over an hour. It is estimated that the attendance was 800, and that was a gratifying fact about the crowd was that it was one that did not hesitate to spend its money. The various booths were quite liberally patronized, and the indications were that the attendance was 800.
